DIVE SITES

No matter how many times you've been on a liveaboard trip to the Brother Islands, there's only one thing you want: to come back here—and soon! Unless, of course, you don't like sharks or the breathtakingly beautiful, overgrown drop-offs and wrecks. The Brothers are two small islands in the Red Sea (Egypt) and are among the best destinations for liveaboard trips.

Description

No matter how many times you've been on a liveboard trip to the Brother Islands, there's only one thing you want: to come back here—and soon! Unless, of course, you don't like sharks or the breathtakingly beautiful, overgrown drop-offs and wrecks. The Brothers are two small islands in the Red Sea (Egypt) and are among the best destinations for liveboard trips.

Which dive sites other than the Brother Islands are visited on this route depends on the safari's starting and ending ports.

Under Egyptian law, night dives are not permitted at the Brothers Islands, and a minimum of 50 logged dives is required.

Here you'll find dive sites along this route. Which sites are actually visited depends on the port from which your liveboard departs and on current weather conditions.
